New York, July 23.—The amicable settlement of the contest over the will of the late Hoss Winans, of Baltimore, has failed because Donald Harper, former New York lawyer, living in Paris, refuses to waive the 331-2 per cent for which he holds an agreement. The will is being contested by the Prince de Bearn, son-in-law of Winans, on behalf of his two children. The estate is valued at $2,500,000 by the esceutors of the will, and the grand-children receive practically nothing moder it.

Telegram from Belmont.

Petry Belmont, who presented the naval plank to the platform committee at Baltimore, vesteeday wired Mr. Sulaer as follows, from Nar Harbor:

"I hope and believe you will succeed in preventing a repudiation of the Democratic platform upon the subject of an adequate navy and of the navy polloy outlined in the resolution adopted by the Baltimore convention, a polley rendered imperatively necessary by recent events, and especially on account of the responsibility of our government in the Pahama canal Zule.

New York City, a past department commander of the Latted Spanieh War Veterane, indicated that a repudiation of the navy plank would be resented at the next engangment of his organization. Mr. Wall wrote:

"I read this morning that you are willing to bolt the caucus which tabled the resolution calling for two hattleships.
"I hope it is so, it is a matter of the resolution calling for two battlemilips.

"I hope it is so. It is a matter of ordinary patriothen to protect our country. One lesson, such as 1598, is sufficient. Spend a few dollars now and save many hurriedly lavished when troublecomes, and a great deal of trouble and anxiety. The proposed plan of two batdischips is conservative enough.

"This is unofficial. I speak as an individual. But the national encampment at attantic City next September is going to express itself in no uncertain language. We can remember the unpreparedness of our country better than others."
